TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 20TH, 2024

WELCOME FR. JOHN FISCHER - We are happy to welcome Fr. John Fischer, who will be speaking at all of our Masses this Sunday on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach. Cross Catholic was founded to forge a stronger and more supportive link between parishes in the United States and the priests and nuns serving the poor in the Caribbean, Africa, Southeast Asia, and Central and South America. I would invite you to be as generous as you can in your response to Fr. Fischer's appeal. Brochures will be provided if you would like to support this worthy Catholic ministry.

FR. CARL McCARTHY WILL BE AWAY - Beginning Monday, October 14 – 24, I will be away from the parish visiting family and friends in New Mexico. While I am away, all Mass times will proceed as usual with the help of Fr. Fischer, Fr. Cash and Fr. Schoettler. If you have a pastoral need during this time, please contact Michelle Clancy or Deacon. Jay VanHoosier in our parish office, and they will be able to assist. Let us pray for one another. In Peace, Fr. Carl

CAN YOU HELP? – Our Trunk or Treat is scheduled for Sunday, October 27, from 2-4pm in our church parking lot. This year we want to invite the children in Precious Blood Parish neighborhood. To do this we are going to canvas the neighborhood and deliver invitation flyers on Friday, October 25, after the Noon Mass. If you would like to help, please meet in the Gathering Space of our church around 12:30pm. Many hands make for lighter work.

Singers Wanted!!!

(No contract or long-term commitment required.)

You asked for it, now it's your time to get on board. Join us as we prepare for the Nov. 1st Holy Day of Obligation (All Saints Day). Our choir will be singing at the 6:00PM vigil mass on Oct. 31st

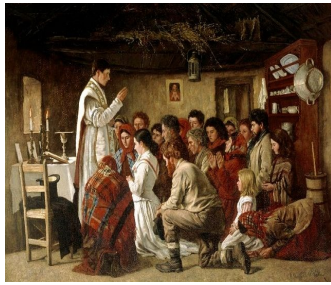

To get ready, we will be having choir rehearsal on Wed., Oct. 20th, and Wed., Oct. 27th, beginning at 6:45PM each night. It would be great if you can come both nights but, if not, come when you can. We will meet in the church.

Hope to see you there!

Ray

HOSTING A COMMUNITY MASS AT YOUR HOME - We are currently seeking families who would be willing to host a Mass in their homes. By opening your doors, you provide a warm and welcoming space where our community can come together, share in the celebration of the Mass, and enjoy fellowship afterwards. Hosting a Community Mass offers a unique way to build relationships, share your faith, and be a part of something that brings our parish family closer together. To schedule a Home Mass and be a host family, reach out to Fr. Carl McCarthy at carl.mccarthy@precious-blood.net or 270-350-8880.

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY is extended to Joyce Riney as she grieves the loss of her sister Linda Schwartz, who died on Friday, October 11, and was laid to rest on Tuesday, October 15. Eternal rest grant unto her, Oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace.

WEDNESDAY ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT- Beginning November 6, we will be extending hours of Eucharistic Adoration to 9 am to 9 pm every Wednesday. To sign up for an Adoration hour, stop by the welcome table in the gathering space of our church after any weekend Mass. You may also call the parish office at 270-684-6888 and ask for Michelle Clancy.

World Missionary Sunday

Deacon
Ministry

Three years ago, Helen and I were discerning the possibility of becoming overseas missionaries. By December we began the application processes with the Camboni Missionaries, and for Christmas, the kids got the news of our decision. We were definitely on our way to Uganda or Peru, and we were excited about this new adventure. Then life happened and we discovered that, at least for the time being, our mission was not in South America or Africa, it was here helping with a critical family need.

Today we celebrate World Missionary Sunday. In St. Luke's Gospel, we read that Jesus sends out 72 disciples in pairs of two with instructions to preach the Word, heal the sick, and offer up blessings (Lk 10:1-10). At the end of St. Matthew's Gospel Jesus imparts to the disciples the Great Commission; to go out and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Mt 28:16-20). These two great stories serve as examples of Jesus' intention for his church to be a missionary church. After all, how else are the seeds of the faith sown?

Sisters and brothers, today we are reminded that through our baptism we, like Paul and the other disciples, are given the mandate of being missionary disciples. Today we are called to recommit ourselves to this common vocation as missionary disciples through prayer, participation in the Eucharistic mystery, service, and other acts of charity.

The importance of supporting, and even serving in overseas missionary work cannot be overemphasized, but it is important we also realize that not all missionary work is international. Often time it is right here in our community and our own family. I pray you are generous in supporting international missionary work, and if you feel called to such work, I urge you to pursue and discern this calling.

The truth is most are not called to be missionaries in a foreign land, but we are all called to preach the Gospel where we are planted. We are all called to live our faith in love and service to the least among us in our own communities. For some that will be through direct action, such as volunteering at one of our homeless shelters or soup kitchens. For others, missionary activity may be through financial contribution which makes the other work possible. Of course, for all of us, missionary work can not be separated from the act of prayer and sharing our faith with others.

Helen and I have not abandoned our dream of serving in the mission fields but in the meantime, we must grow where God has planted us. I encourage you to also grow where God has planted you and to ask yourself, better yet ask God, how you can be the missionary disciple he wants you to be. — Deacon Ken

The Bishop Soenneker Knights of Columbus would like to thank the people of Precious Blood for the generosity and support for our KC yard sale. We are grateful for all the wonderful items you donated and all the support you showed us with this fundraiser. On behalf of our council, we are presenting a check to the Parish for $650. Thank You!
