The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities contact the Commonwealth Attorney's 270-685-8429; local law enforcement at 270 -687-8888 OPD or Daviess County Sherriff's Dept at 270-685-8444; or Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (1-877-597- 2331). To report abuse to the diocese, current or past, by anyone acting in the name of the Church (paid or volunteer), call Scott Ingram, Assistance Coordinator 270-852-8380. If you need to renew your safe environment background check or have never had an initial background check please contact the parish office and we'll send you the information. needed so that we can be in compliance with Diocesan policy.

A Note from Deacon Jay VanHoosier

ST PAUL OF THE CROSS

This past week, on October 20, the Church celebrated the feast day of Saint Paul of the Cross, founder of the Passionists. His life reminds us that the Cross reveals the extraordinary depth of God's love for us. When we look upon the crucified Jesus, we see a love that gives everything - a love that invites our response.

That invitation is at the heart of our baptismal call to discipleship. Through Baptism, we are united with Christ in his death and Resurrection and called to share in his mission. We become members of his Body, entrusted with making his love visible through our words, choices, and actions.

Saint Paul of the Cross understood that spending time in prayer with Jesus changes how we live. As we reflect on Christ's Passion, we learn to recognize the suffering around us: the neighbor grieving a loss, the homebound parishioner longing for companionship, the family struggling to pay its bills, or the person who feels forgotten. The love we encounter in prayer calls us to draw near to them.

Here in the Diocese of Owensboro, we are blessed to have the Passionist Nuns at Saint Joseph Monastery in Whitesville. Their lives of prayer and contemplation of Christ's Passion are a beautiful witness to this love. Though their vocation differs from most of ours, they remind us that faithful discipleship must be rooted in a relationship with Jesus.

For us at Precious Blood, that relationship grows through prayer, the sacraments, and a willingness to serve. It takes flesh when we listen patiently, forgive generously, visit someone who is lonely, or offer help without expecting anything in return. These ordinary acts become expressions of Christ's self-giving love.

As I look upon the Cross this week, how is Jesus calling me to live my Baptism by bringing his love to someone who is suffering?

Blessings,

Deacon Jay

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

Thanks to your generosity, the Parish Social Ministry Committee has been able to support our community in several ways. First, we shared four tubs of children's smaller adult clothing with the resource coordinator at Cravens Elementary School.

Later, we delivered three tubs of men's clothing to the residents of the Boulware Treatment Center. Thus, the rummage sale not only helped our parishioners but other residents in our community.

Finally, the monthly meal provided by our parish to the Women's and Children's day shelter continues to bring many, many smiles and complements to those who provide the food. When one resident was asked if there is anything she would like to say, she said, "Halleluiah, God is Good!" Upon returning to the parish, one of the ladies who went to serve said, "I kept thinking, that could be me or any of us someday!"

Let us remember the words of St. Augustine who said, "the poor are not just people to be helped, but the sacramental presence of the Lord."
