THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 10, 2024

PRAYING FOR OUR 2025 FIRST COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Last Sunday at the 10:30am Mass we celebrated the Rite of Commissioning with our young people who will be Confirmed in our Catholic faith on Sunday, April 6, 2025. In this Sacrament of Confirmation, they will receive the Holy Spirit and complete their full initiation into our Catholic Church. However, this word “complete” does not mean that they are done with their faith. What it means is that they are just beginning a fuller life in our faith, living it out, with fresh help of the Holy Spirit that they will receive from our bishop at their Confirmation.

Along with these Confirmation students, we are also blessed with 9 children who will be making their First Communion on Sunday, April 6, at our 10:30am Mass. For those of us who have received our First Communion, it is one of those days of faith that is imprinted in our faith memory. For myself, I remember taking pictures with my family outside of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Curdsville, KY. I can also remember walking in procession into the church with my hands folded and looking forward to receiving Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion. Finally, I can remember the party that my parents had at our home, complete with cake and all the trimmings.

As our Confirmation and First Communion candidates prepare for receiving these sacraments this year, I would ask that we surround them with our prayers. Below you find a prayer and the names of all of these young people. Let us pray for them and for one another that we may all live our faith with joy.

In peace, Fr. Carl McCarthy

The following will be having Masses in their homes in the near future: John & Michelle Clancy, Joe & Mary June Cecil and Michael & Judy McGuinn. To schedule a Home Mass and be a host family, reach out to Fr. Carl McCarthy at carl.mccarthy@precious-blood.net or 270-350-8880.

St. Vincent De Paul Sunday

Our St. Vincent De Paul Conference is extremely low on funds. Due to the disasters that have occurred in the country these past few months there is no grant money available. We are asking for your assistance in giving, so we can continue to take care of the families in our district. For your convenience, we have placed pink envelopes labeled SVDP on the welcome table at the church doors. Please take an envelope and prayerfully give. You may return it on our SVDP weekend, November 23rd & 24th or anytime in the offering basket. We ask, If you give with cash, please include your name so we may apply that to your church contributions. These envelopes will continue to be available for those willing to give or that give through our online giving. Thank you for the generosity that Precious Blood always shows. Let's push out into deep waters to help the needs of our community through SVDP.

Thank You,
Jeanette Ebelhar
