THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

This coming Saturday, November 21, we will celebrate the Memorial of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Scripture does not recount this event. It comes to us through an ancient Christian tradition that tells how Mary's parents, Joachim and Anne, brought her to the Temple in Jerusalem to offer her to God. The feast has roots in the Eastern Church going back to the sixth century and was later adopted in the Roman Church.

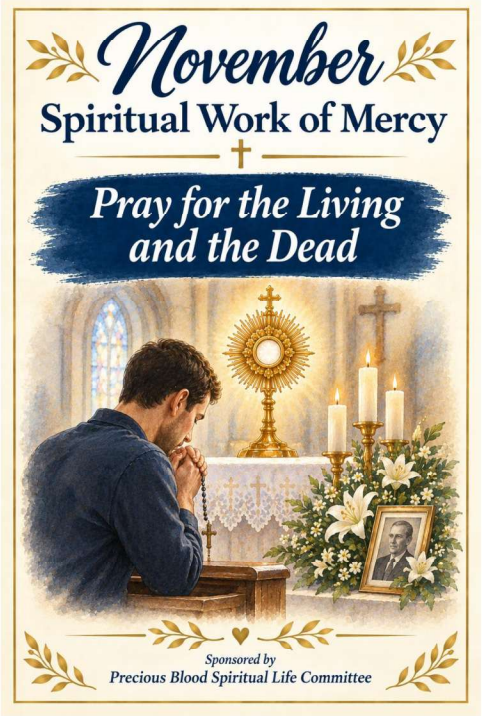

What I love about this memorial is how it helps us hear Mary's words at the Annunciation with fresh ears. When she says, "May it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38), she offers God her whole life, including a future she cannot yet see. That makes me wonder how often I ask God to bless my plans and how often I give him room to change them.

As disciples, we have something to present to God in the ordinary circumstances of every day. We can offer him the time it takes to sit with someone who is lonely, the patience it takes to listen when we are tired, or the humility it takes to make the first move toward reconciliation. We can also bring him the parts of our lives we do not know what to do with yet. Even a worry we have been carrying alone can become a prayer when we place it in his hands.

At Mass this weekend, as the bread and wine are brought forward, what part of your life will you place in God's hands?

Christ's Peace,

Deacon Jay

MEMENTO MORI: REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST DIE

You may have heard the Latin phrase Memento Mori, which means "Remember that you must die." While that may sound like a sobering thought, the Catholic Church understands it as an invitation to live life with purpose, faith, and hope.

Remembering that our time on earth is limited reminds us not to take our days for granted. It encourages us to grow closer to God, and focus on what truly matters. Our earthly life is not the end of our story. As Catholics, we believe that through Jesus Christ, death is not the final word. We are made for eternal life with God.

Memento Mori is not about living in fear of death, but about remembering that every day is a gift and an opportunity to prepare our hearts for eternity. It is a reminder to live well, love well, and keep our eyes fixed on Christ.
