Practicing Prayer This Lent?

Do you seek the still, quiet voice of God?

Come explore the gifts of contemplative prayer an discover more deeply God's presence and action in your life and within you. This prayer, often called Centering Prayer has been part of our Christian heritage for Centuries - and now you have the opportunity to participate in a Centering Prayer Introductory Program that will be offered at Precious Blood on Saturday, February 25, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00pm in the Parish Hall.

The prayer will be presented by an experienced practitioner of Centering prayer who has been commissioned to present the program by Contemplative Outreach, Ltd. It will include time for presentation, discussion, prayer and includes lunch, The program and lunch are offered at no cost to you, with the support of your Parish and the sponsorship of the Ursulines Sisters. Please register in advance by contacting parishioner Maryann Joyce at 812-867-7507, maryannjoyce@sbcglobal.net or Michelle in the office at 270-684-6888.
