A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

The news out of Rome this past week on the health of Pope Francis has been concerning as he is suffering from double pneumonia. On Saturday, Feb 22, it was reported the he remains at Rome's Gemelli Hospital.

His doctors state that they believed the Pope would be hospitalized for "at least" the entirety of the next week and that Pope Francis is not "in danger of death," but he's also not fully "out of danger."

Dr Alfieri emphasized that the Pope is not attached to a ventilator, although he is still struggling with his breathing and consequently keeping his physical movements limited.

Nevertheless, the physician said, the Pope is sitting upright in a chair, working, and joking as usual. Alfieri said that when one of the doctors greeted the Pope by saying "Hello, Holy Father", he replied with "Hello, Holy Son".

Asked what the greatest fear is, the doctors noted that there is a risk that germs in the Pope's respiratory tract might enter his bloodstream, causing sepsis.

Dr Alfieri did say, however, that he was confident that Pope Francis would leave the hospital at some point and return to Casa Santa Marta in the Vatican – with the provision that when he does so, his chronic respiratory issues will remain.

Let us pray for the health and wellbeing of our Holy Father. – The source for this update came from the Vatican News

Closer to home, the work continues on our Rectory here at Precious Blood. Most all of the walls that will be removed in this phase of the work have been taken out of the main living space. We will soon start the work on the drywall and the ceiling. We are also making the final choices for the new kitchen cabinets for its layout and rebuild. I am most grateful to our Men's Club for their hard work and dedication to this project. When finished, it will be an asset to our parish and future priests for years to come.

While this work is happening at the rectory, I have moved out. If you come looking for me at the rectory of an evening or on a weekend, you will not find me at home. However, during the day and early evening, I can be found at the church office or church building.

Let us all pray for one another. In Peace, Fr. Carl McCarthy

Whether you are a first-time visitor or a returning parishioner, we are glad you are here! Welcome Packets with registration forms are available at both entrances. For more information about Precious Blood, please contact the office at 270.684.6888. We would love to hear from you!

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER Oh Lord, giver of life and source of our freedom, we are reminded that Yours is "the earth in its fullness; the world and those who dwell in it." We know that it is from your hand that we have received all we have and are and will be. Gracious and loving God, we understand that you call us to be the stewards of Your abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to us. Help us always to use your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously. May our faithful stewardship bear witness to the love of Christ in our lives. We pray this with grateful hearts in Jesus' name. Amen
